

Sinclair Broadcasting's command to their stations to air "Stolen Honor" is a disgusting level of corporate overreach and what has happened due to the rules to allow media consolidation. Media consolidation is taking away the critical independent information that is needed to support our Democracy. There must be different points of view expressed, facts not spin, to help people make up their minds on such as critical issue as the presidential election. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.
